

Happy Bangkok Bay Customers

My first dinner at Bangkok Bay has been 12 years. Each year gets better and better. I like trying the different foods, it's an adventure in it's self. The ambiance is awesome and the staff is always kind and helpful. This May I will be celebrating my birthday here at Bangkok Bay.

12 years ago a good friend of mine introduced me to Bangkok Bay and I became hooked. The staff always makes me feel like family, treats me and other customer's as such. The food is always awesome, and I never get bored with it, as in one month, I ate here 27 consecutive days. NOTE I have never done that with any other restaurant.

Thank you, Bangkok Bay
